The 1991-92 Dissenter is dedicated to Daisy Thorp

Daisy Thorp has drawn us into the world of art, and through art she has opened all the world to us in ways undreamed. We see things and feel things and imagine things we never knew we could. And because she has given us such gifts, we can never be again as we were before we knew her and she taught us. She has showed us in paintings and in the art of her life truth and beauty and love we now dare to hope for more fully in our own experience. She who is a gardener at heart and of the heart, has nurtured us that we might bloom as students, and more as men and women. Daisy has made us all want to plant a flower with our lives, to make the world brighter and lovelier and sweeter. We want to thank her by dedicating to her, with abiding affection, this year's Dissenter.
